THE DECISIVE BATTLEFIELDS OF THE VIET NAM WARS

*p/person, t/share. Need to add international air travel if not following on from the Long Tan Trek Tour. ***

Dave Sabben will host a further tour of NINE more of the decisive battlefields of the three Indo-China Wars.

Between Saigon and Hanoi, we'll see Hoi An, Da Nang (Op Starlight, 1965), Marble Mt (VC hospital), China Beach (R&R Centre), Red Beach II (1965 landings), Hai Van Pass, Hue (Tet '68) - see where the heaviest fighting took place both south & north of the Perfume River. Then to Quang Tri (Easter Offensive 72), Dong Ha (Tet '72), the DMZ ('66-'72), Khe Sanh ('68), several camps & FSBs, the Vinh Moc tunnels, Hamburger Hill ('69), the A Shau Valley ('69) and other sites. Then to Hanoi to visit sites of military significance including the Army Museum which has the tank that broke down the Palace gates in Saigon in 1975, the "Hanoi Hilton" prison, and other sites. We'll spend a full day at the Dien Bien Phu battlefield. Plus, we'll discuss TWO other battlefields: Lam Son (in Laos, '72) and Dich Van. The Decisive Battlefields Tour will end with a 2-night R&R at Ha Long Bay. Departs Hanoi 29 Oct - arrives back in Australia on Sunday 30 October 2011.
